Join the Vintage Conservatory and Cyndi Grossman Sommelier from the Mellecey Wine Group for a four-course Burgundy Wine Dinner.

The Vintage Conservatory began as a passion project, founded in 2011 by Constantine Patiniotis in a historic building on Lombard Street in Toronto. From the beginning, the VC has been a comfortable and unpretentious space for like-minded wine collectors to share food & wine experiences with other members, friends, and clients. In 2019, Costa partnered with John Caliendo to open a second location in the heart of Yorkville, and the community quickly embraced the ambience and culture of the new location.

After living in Europe for ten years, Sommelier Cyndi Grossman brings home an unparalleled devotion and passion for wine. With the opportunity to participate in World Class Education, she carefully curates her list to reflect the true and authentic expressions of the winemaker in each of their respective terroirs. The Toronto Hunt

Location: 1355 Kingston Road, Toronto, ON

One of Canada's most historic member clubs, The Toronto Hunt has been providing its members with remarkable experiences since 1843, when it was established as a fox hunting club by British Army officers of the Toronto garrison (Fort York). Located on Lake Ontario, only a short drive from downtown Toronto and minutes from the city's vibrant Beaches community, its historic clubhouse provides spectacular vistas of the lake - equally breathtaking and thrilling. Perched on the bluffs above the lake, Toronto Hunt is the #1 ranked 9-hole golf course in Canada by SCOREGolf magazine. One of the best settings for dining anywhere in the GTA, The Toronto Hunt is classic, but with modern amenities, offering splendid service and elegant cuisine.

With its roots based on a rebuild in 1911, following a fire that destroyed the original clubhouse on the site, the building has been updated while continuing its historic connection to the club's early years. Additions were made to the clubhouse following World War I, and tweaks have occurred ever since, with significant alterations occurring in 2003.
