General conditions

Participant registration ends on October 4, 2023. In the case of complete cancellation of the event at any time, the Organizer shall keep the entire amount of the registration fee for each participant as well as possible bank fees for refunds. If the participant cancels his or her participation, he or she may receive a refund if that is provided herein. The reservation will be confirmed upon receipt of full payment for the services booked by each participant. For cancellation of lunches and dinners until October 9, 2023 the Organizer shall refund the entire amount paid (except the registration fee according to conditions for full cancellation); for cancellation after October 9, 2023 the Organizer may keep the full amount paid. In case of unfavourable weather conditions and exceptional events, the Organizer may change the program at its own discretion. Restaurants and locations listed in the program may vary due to events or cases of force majeure or due to the insufficient minimum required number of participants.

Conditions related to excursions and workshops

The reservation will be reconfirmed upon receipt of full payment for the services booked by each participant. A minimum number of people and sometimes a maximum number of participants are required for several excursions. In case of insufficient minimum number of participants, unfavorable weather conditions, force majeure and unforeseen events, one or more excursions can be cancelled; in this case, the organization will provide alternative proposals or make a full refund for booked excursions.

The cancellation fee for all tours and transportation is:

- 100% of the amount paid for any cancellation received after 9 October 2023.

The plan of excursions may differ depending on the division into groups by language. If necessary, excursions can be led by a bilingual guide.
